Use of cookies

This website may use technical cookies (small information files that the server sends to the computer belonging to the person accessing the page) to carry out certain functions that are considered essential for the proper functioning and display of the site. The cookies used are in all cases temporary, with the sole purpose of making browsing more efficient, and disappear when the user's session ends. These cookies never provide personal data by themselves and will not be used for the collection thereof.

The use of cookies also enables the server where the website is located to recognise the browser used by the user in order to make browsing easier, such as by allowing access by users who have previously registered to areas, services, promotions or contests reserved exclusively for them, without having to register for each visit. They can also be used to measure audience and traffic parameters, monitor the progress and number of entries, etc., and in these cases, they are technically dispensable cookies but are beneficial for the user. This website will not install dispensable cookies without the prior consent of the user.

The user is able to configure his/her browser to receive alerts regarding the reception of cookies and to prevent the installation thereof on his/her computer. Please consult your browser instructions for further information.

Links policy

The website may redirect users to content from third-party websites. Given that the PARTY RESPONSIBLE cannot always control the contents added by third parties to their respective websites, it does not accept liability of any type with regard to the said contents. In any event, it will immediately remove any content that may contravene Spanish or international legislation, morality or public order, immediately remove the redirection to the said website, and bring the content concerned to the attention of the competent authorities.

The PARTY RESPONSIBLE cannot be held responsible for information and content stored in areas including but not limited to forums, chats, blog generators, comments, social networks and any other median that allows third parties to publish content independently on the website of the PARTY RESPONSIBLE. However, pursuant to the provisions of articles 11 and 16 of the Law on Information Society Services and Electronic Commerce, the rights of third parties or morality and public order are at the disposal of all users, authorities and security forces, collaborating actively in the removal or blocking, as appropriate, of all contents that may affect or contravene national or international legislation.

Users believing that any content on this website may be liable to being described as such are requested to notify the administrator of the website immediately. This website has been reviewed and tested to work properly. Theoretically, its correct operation can be guaranteed 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. However, the PARTY RESPONSIBLE cannot rule out the possibility of programming errors, or the occurrence of causes of force majeure, natural disasters, strikes or similar circumstances that make it impossible to access the website.

IP addresses

The website's servers can automatically identify the IP address and domain name used by the user. An IP address is a number automatically assigned to a computer when it connects to the Internet. All this information is recorded in a duly registered server activity file that enables the subsequent processing of the data in order to obtain measurements of an exclusively statistical nature that provide information on the number of page printouts, the number of visits made to web servers, the order of visits, the access point, etc.

4. APPLICABLE LAW AND JURISDICTION

Spanish legislation will be applicable for the resolution of any disputes that may arise from issues related to this website or the activities taking place on it. The Parties specifically submit to the said legislation and the competence of the Courts and Tribunals closest to Barcelona for the resolution of all disputes arising from or related to its use.
